Minutes

Welcome & Agenda Review

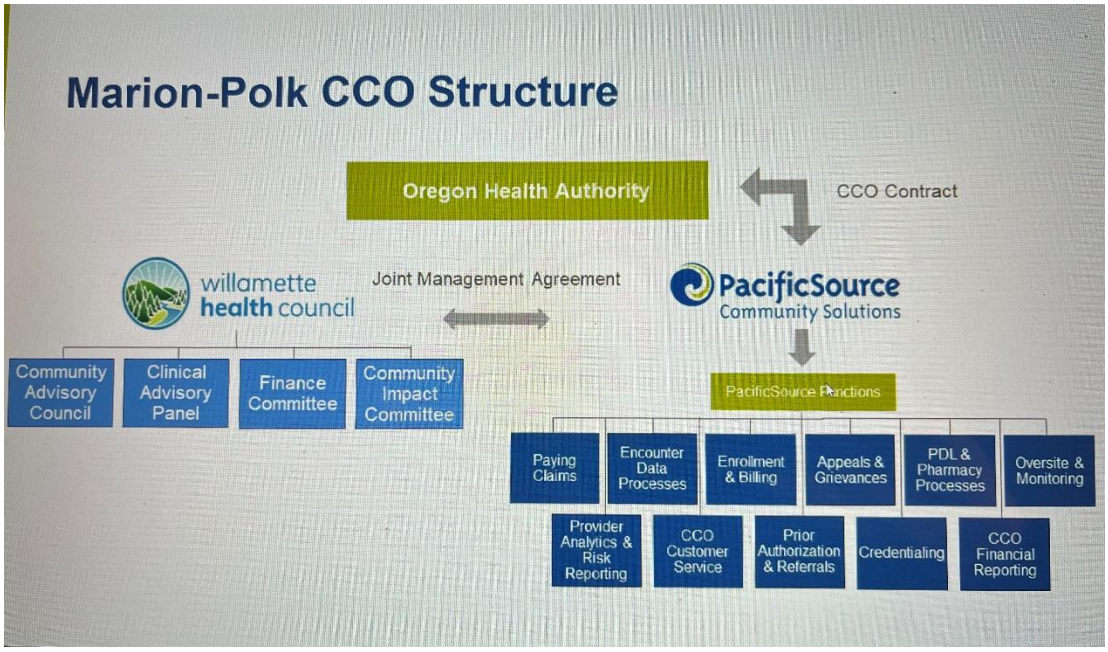
Ian welcomed everyone and invited people new to the group to introduce themselves. People were also afforded the opportunity to acknowledge and give kudos to individuals or agencies they work with.

Meeting Minutes

Doug Odell moved approval of the March 16, 2022 meeting minutes; Jayne Downing seconded; minutes approved without dissent.

PacificSource CCO Mini Training

Elaine Lozier presented information on the regional Coordinated Care Organization and the ways in which it supports members. Her PowerPoint is posted on the Collaborative Committee page of the Alliance website.



Community Updates

Ian provided information about some of the Legislation passed in the latest session.

Jayne Downing, Center for Hope & Safety noted that, on the federal level, HOPE Plaza Housing Project received a $2M appropriation. They have 90% of the funding needed to open the project debt-free. Sara Brennan, Program Manager at CHS invited everyone to the groundbreaking the next morning.

Shyle Ruder, Fair Housing Council of Oregon announced there were just a few slots left under their Salem grant which will sponsor a fair housing training for your organization. The trainings review groups that are protected under fair housing law and ways to identify housing discrimination for those you serve. If your organization is interested in one of these slots, please email sruder@fhco.org.

MWVHA Board, Committee, Subcommittee Highlights

Ian noted that the March board meeting included appointments of new Youth Action Board and other committee members; taking the next step to explore becoming a Unified Funding Agency; re-certifying Community Action Agency's plans for use of regular ESG funds; approving the Coordinated Community Plan to End Youth Homeless; and approving the timeline and tools for use in the local YHDP RFP process.
